LilyPoP

LilyPoP is a bottle opener that gives a sense of delightful and playfulness, opening a bottle of coke or beer gives a happy moment to the user, just like opening a bottle with LilyPoP gives the user a relax and refreshing feeling. The rubber edge ease and made the user more comfortable when opening.

LilyPoP captures the moment of “releasing” of happiness through releasing the fizzy and bouncy air when opening a drink. The sense of freshness and refreshing feeling is also represented with the shape of a flower.

Framevase

Framevase is a simple yet sophisticated design which has an eco-friendly design behind it. With framevase, it is not a vase that captures the user's attention to only the flowers, but instead the three elements (the vase, containers and flowers) together which made framevase a complete design.

We emphasis on everyday living style and knowing the desire of rearranging the home once a while, Framevase could give users a little different in style every time they change the flowers or rotate the vase

Different types of water bottles can be slotted into the framevase, and when you flip it over, you could put any water containers at the bottom of the vase. Each time a different container is changed, a new vase has born. The vase itself is like an everchanging photo frame that captures the essence of flowers and beauty of each container that we might have missed before.
